State of Tennessee, Benton County—I, A. S. Justice, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

A. S. JUSTICE, Cashier.

Correct—Attest:

J. J. COLE,

R. L. STOCKARD,

S. L. PEELER,

Directors

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of January, 1915.

W. T. MORRIS, Notary Public.

Little Locals.

J. P. Jordan of Sawyers' Mill was in the city Monday.

Bob Presson of Hollow Rock was in the city Monday.

Assessor G. B. Dillon of Eva City was in Camden Monday.

Two snow storms and colder weather this week has created a demand for firewood.

Bring your stock peas and ear corn to T. A. Berry and get the highest market price.

Lawyer S. L. Peeler was in Jackson the first of the week to attend the Court of Appeals.

Alvin Lashlee of Nashville spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lashlee.

Chancellor J. W. Ross will convene a special term of Chancery Court here next Monday.

Mrs. F. E. McElvey is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Lashlee, Jr., at Paducah this week.

Prayer meeting at the Baptist Church every Wednesday evening. Everybody cordially invited.

Rev. J. V. Freeman of Lexington, presiding elder, will hold quarterly conference at Post oak tomorrow and in Camden Monday morning. He will preach at the M. E. Church, South, on Sunday evening. Everybody invited.

Prayer meeting will be held with Mrs. J. V. Travis this afternoon. Topic, "The choice of the fittest," Judges vii 1 and 8; xvi 23, Mrs. W. A. Bell leader. The meeting will be held with Mrs. G. P. Hicks Friday afternoon January 29. "Preparing for life," Judges xiii 8, 16, 24 and 25, Mrs. R. G. Florence, leader.

PEAS WANTED.

Call on T. A. Berry and get sacks to sack your peas. He will furnish them free.

A Nashville mule buyer will be here today and tomorrow, January 22 and 23, and will pay spot cash for good sound mules from 8 to 14 years old.

Hon. H. B. Pafford came over from Nashville Friday to attend the funeral of his uncle, Cooper Pafford, who died in the Flatwoods community last week.

Clarence Doherty completed his school at Crooked Creek last week and returned home Saturday. He pleased the patrons of the school at that place, and we understand they want him to teach again.

A dry, hacking cough is hard on the lungs, often causing them to bleed. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is a healing balm that quickly repairs damage in the lungs and air passages. Price 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by all druggists.

The Lamb Club held a well attended meeting here last Saturday. J. A. Sparks was elected secretary to succeed Register Will Wyatt, resigned. The next meeting of the club will be held here on the first Monday in March.

Miss Irene Fry has returned from Jackson where she was instructor in music at the Memphis Conference Female Institute. Her stay at home depends largely on a wounded hand, which debars her from piano work at present.

I will pay $1.60 per bushel on account for whippoorwill peas or $1.50 per bushel cash.

JOE J. WEATHERLY.

Notice

We are closing up our 1914 business and invite you to call on us at once, if indebted to me, and settle, otherwise your account will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection.

J. G. CANTWELL.

CAMDEN HIGH SCHOOL.

Fay is a Branch from a good old tree.

Mr. Clark stood "pat" on examinations.

If you are looking for some fun, Guy Melton.

Roy McEwen of Cowell's Chapel and Wayne Hall entered school Monday.

Our roll shows the largest number of boarding students in the history of the school.

Mr. Presson's name, when turned around, might read like this: Presson Kind Arthur.

"The Tripple Alliance" is a newly formed school society which meets every Friday night.

Two dozen valentines have been ordered from the local publishing house by Miss Carrie Odle.

Superintendent Duffot should establish a line of mud schooners to help in transportation across the campus.

Miss Roberta Gibson, renowned Latin scholar, has been visiting in Big Sandy. It is needless to say, her absence was keenly felt by the teachers.

The students of C. H. S. have an advantage over most of the schools in West Tennessee in that they have Holladays almost every day. John and Ed, you know.

Last Thursday and Friday were days set apart by Superintendent Duffot for mid-year examinations. We all passed, but which way we are not sure. "Some are going up, and some are going down."

Cartoonist Orr of the Nashville Tennessean and American has a dangerous rival in the person of Levi Furr. Some of Levi's cartoons in the C. H. S. Annual make Orr look like an amateur.

McClellan Vick, age (silent on age) hobby, singing; profession, teaching; nickname, "Mack." E. Lynn McCullough, age, 10 (authority, the girls); hobby, cross country hikes; profession, boxing (grocer), and nickname, "Potty." [Note—There will be two students described in this manner every week; watch for them.]

The snow being too deep for the local plant of the West Tennessee Gravel Company to load dirt, Boss Stockard, who thinks that "an idle brain is the devil's workshop," came over to see the political machine of C. H. S. operate. While here he was persuaded to give us a few thoughts. His speech covered everything from his school-day love affairs to the much talked of school building. His random thoughts inspired most of us to try to climb to that high station of ex-Mayor. Sometimes he is called, as was Bob Taylor, "Our Bob." Come again.

CLAUD.

J. D. Melton of Harmons Creek visited here Sunday.

Scott Pierpont of Sulphur Creek has located near Claud.

T. A. Chester has been visiting in the Way community.

Bob Herrington has been visiting his mother near Eva.

Lee Harrison of Britt's Landing was here one day last week.

James Holloman of Sulphur Creek visited here Sunday.

James Cherry of Texas has been visiting in this community.

Samuel Rainwaters and E. B. Farmer were in Camden one day last week.

A. A. Melton and Joseph Corbitt of Harmons Creek were here on business last week.

Rev. C. B. Clayton preached a fine sermon here Sunday. Brother Clayton will preach for us every third Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Everybody cordially invited.

WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union observed afternoon of January 14 at Baptist Church as a day of prayer for national constitutional prohibition with the following program:

Song, "All hail the power of Jesus name."

Scripture reading by the president, Mrs. G. B. Holladay.

Prayer by Rev. Frank B. Jones.

Quartet, "A little bit of love," Mrs. G. P. Hicks, Mrs. J. H. Jordan, A. L. Hassell and Edgar J. Clement.

A prophetic message, Mrs. A. S. McGill.

Why we expect to succeed, Mrs. E. O. Thomas.

Milestones passed in the prohibition movement, Brother Jones.

The present crisis, Edgar J. Clement.

Solo, "My mother's white ribbon," Mrs. J. H. Jordan.

Song, "Out for prohibition."

Resolutions for national constitutional prohibition were read and adopted.

What a little bow did, Mrs. Mary Crocker.

Song, "Blest be the tie that binds."

Closing prayer, Brother Jones.

The meeting was a most enjoyable one to all present.

Lame back may come from overwork, cold settled in the muscles of the back or from disease. In the two former cases the right remedy is Ballard's Snow Liniment. It should be rubbed in thoroughly over the affected part, the relief will be prompt and satisfactory. Price 25c, 50c and $1 per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

We will take produce and wood on subscription.

WHEATLEY.

We are having snowy weather this week.

Mrs. Sis Akers is suffering from a very sore leg.

Beulah Parker is reported sick with typhoid fever.

Rev. Jesse N. Farmer moved to Big Sandy last week.

William Brack of Whiteoak was over on a visit Sunday.

Born, January 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Travis M. Hall, a fine boy.

One of Hawley Garner's children died Monday with pneumonia, and another child is very ill.

Mrs. Oma Melton, who has been with her daughter, Mrs. Vina Alexander, who is in bad health, has returned home.

Mr. Merrill and wife (formerly Miss Annie Myrtle Akers) of Bennett's Creek have been visiting in this community.

Uncle Jack Gallagher of Benton Cut received a black hand letter in his mail box Monday morning to get ready and leave for Ireland in thirty days or take the consequences, as drunkards and Catholics are not wanted here. By hard work Mr. Gallagher has saved up some money. He came here a few years ago, and married Miss Mamie Hennessey, a young lady of many charming traits of character. He is honest and attends to his own business, and we can not understand why it was done. As to his being a Catholic, this is his privilege and his God-given right to worship the Supreme Being according to the dictates of his own conscience. Besides, the Catholic people here are law-abiding and good neighbors, and if Uncle Jack wants to take a "nip" occasionally that is his privilege. We hope the matter is merely a joke.

The Needlecraft Club will meet with Miss Geraldine Arnold on Wednesday afternoon, January 27.
